The People of Hope is a Catholic Charismatic Covenant community of prayer, family life, and evangelization. Officially recognized as a private association of the faithful in 2006 by Archbishop Myers, the People of Hope sponsors marriage and family retreats, youth, university, and young adult programs, Christian business seminars, and other evangelistic events. Its largest outreach is Koinonia Academy, a K-12 school, founded in 1984. The Community is organized to encourage individuals and families to dedicate their lives to God under the Lordship of Jesus Christ, to help in the renewal of the Catholic Church and to assist the spreading of the Gospel message of Jesus Christ locally and throughout the world. To be "a witness of an authentically Christian life, given over to God." (Pope Paul VI, Evangelii Nuntiandi, 1975).
